

WELCOME TO TAM THANH!

This tour is more than just sightseeing—it's a chance to connect with the heart of Vietnam through its people, food, and history!

The first circular kitchen experience

Enchanting Tam Thanh mural village

A hands-on culinary journey to explore the true flavor of Quang Nam

Small-scale and personalized touch with interactions with the community

Journey into the past and uncover the stories of Vietnam's resilient spirit

WHAT'S INCLUDED IN YOUR ADVENTURE?

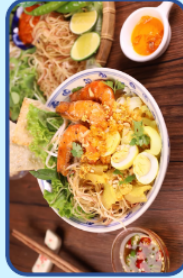

07.15 - 08.30 - Pick up at hotels in Da Nang and Hoi An.

09.30 - Arrive at the charming Tam Thanh mural village. Visit a traditional fish sauce workshop to explore how Vietnamese fish sauce is made. Then, take a brief walk to a warm and welcoming local home to learn the art of crafting Quảng noodles.

11.00 - Embark on a scenic and tranquil boat tour along the picturesque Truong Giang River. Handpick fresh seafood for an unforgettable culinary adventure later in the day.

12.00 - Head back to Ngoc Lan Homestay and dive into making your own bowl of Quang noodles using the fresh ingredients you've gathered throughout the morning.

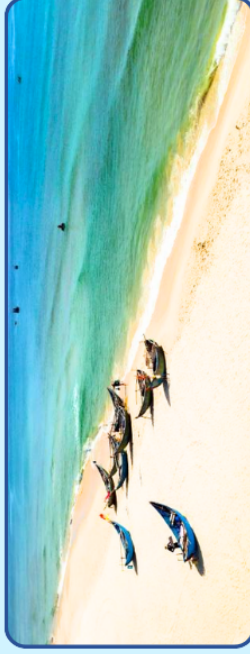

12.30 - Savor a delightful local lunch cooked by the homestay owner, capturing the authentic flavors of Quảng people.

13.30 - Continue to Tam Ky city to visit the iconic Mother Thu statue and discover the legendary story of the heroic Vietnamese mother Nguyen Thi Thu. Then, visit the Ky Anh tunnels in Thach Tan village, one of the three largest tunnels in Vietnam, which bear the historical significance of the nation's resistance during the American War.

15.30 - 17.00 - Return to Hoi An or Da Nang. End of the tour.

The Tour Includes:

- Roundtrip car transportation
- Lunch featuring authentic Quang dishes prepared from local ingredients
- Complimentary refills of purified water at the homestay, please bring your own water bottle
- Tour guide
- All expenses for the experiences outlined in the itinerary, including the products made during each activity